Chapter Director

Thoughts from Gordon and Julie

Greetings E Team,

I would again like to thank all of you for allowing me to serve as your Chapter Director all these years as it was my pleasure to do so, but we all knew this was my last year so here goes.....drum roll please.....I am so very proud to announce your Chapter Director for 2013...another drum roll..... GORDON COMBS... wait a minute, I was stepping down, and who did this!!!! My wife is not going to be happy about this. Well, the truth is, our nominee changed jobs and his work has prevented him from stepping up, and my wife is actually happy about this as I will continue to serve you fine folks and stay out of her hair.

So there you have it, you're stuck with me for at least another year. I am VERY happy to stay on as your Chapter Director because, as I have said before, I love this organization and all of the people. I am re"E"nergized (chapter E, get it) and ready to ride, and ride we have as just this past Saturday I led a group of 9 crazy people in 40 degree weather and fog to ride over two hundred miles to another state just to eat lunch. And just the night before, our MEC's, Charlie and Ellen, hosted a dinner at Red Lobster where 41 on us came out on a rainy night just to eat and enjoy each other's company. This proves the Gold Wing motto, Ride to Eat, Eat to Ride.....no, not that motto, the Friends for Fun motto.

We have a lot coming up so keep a watch of your emails and add the dates to your calendar. Some very important dates are Wingless Weekend on February 15th and 16th, Maintenance Day/Pot Luck at Charlie and Ellen's April 6th, Wing Ding July 3rd through the 6th, our Fall Fantasy on September 22nd, the Virginia District Rally in the Valley October 10th through 12th, and our Christmas Party on December 7th (one week earlier than the past few years). Your team leaders are making plans to get dinner rides scheduled for every month and published for the entire year, and we are looking into a few overnight trips to add to all the fun we have planned. So keep that battery charged and the tires properly inflated as Chapter E will be on the roads a lot this year.

Your continuing Chapter Director,

Gordon

20 Ways to Save Your Life

[Pulled from the GWRRA Insight Newsletter, dated December 2012]
[Originally from the "Motorcyclist 100 Magazine", dated August 2006]

Knowledge for safe and fun Mo-torcycling!!!

1) Assume you are invisible.

Because to a lot of drivers you are. Never make a move based on an assumption that another driver sees you, even if you have just made eye contact. Bikes don't always register in the four-wheel mind.

2) Dress for the crash, not the pool or the prom.

Sure, the restaurant is a 5 minute trip, but nobody plans to eat pavement. Modern mesh gear means 100 degree heat is no excuse for a tee shirt and shorts.

3) Hope for the best, prepare for the worst.

Assume that car across the intersection will turn across your bow when the light goes green, with or without a turn signal.

4) Be patient.

Always take another second or three before you pull out to pass, ride away from the curb, or merge into freeway traffic from an on-ramp. It's what you don't see that gets you.

5) Watch your closing speed.

Passing cars at twice their speed or changing lanes to shoot past a row of stopped cars is just asking for trouble.

6) Left-turning cars remain a leading killer of motorcyclists.

Don't assume someone will wait for you to dart through the intersection. They are trying to beat the light too.

7) Beware of cars running traffic lights.

The first few seconds after a signal light changes are the most perilous. Pause and look both ways before moving into or through an intersection.

8) Check your mirrors.

Do it every time you change lanes. Check your mirrors and then turn your head to verify it's clear. Be ready to move if another vehicle is about to occupy the space you plan to use.

9) Mind the gap.

Scan the next 12 seconds ahead for potential trouble and position yourself to avoid it.

10) Look where you want to go.

Use the miracle of target fixation to your advantage. The motorcycle goes where you look, so focus on the solution instead of the problem

Continue on page 3.

Chapter Rider's Education

11) Keep your eyes moving.

Traffic is always shifting, so keep scanning for potential trouble. Don't lock your eyes on any one thing for too long unless you're actually dealing with trouble.

12) Get your mind right in the driveway.

Most accidents happen during the first 15 minutes of a ride, below 40 mph, near an intersection or drive-way. Yes, that could be your driveway, or Gordon's.

13) Stay in your comfort zone when you are with a group.

Riding over your head is a good way to end up in a ditch. Any bunch worth riding with will have a rendezvous point where you will be able to hook up again. Have a communication plan in place before you take off on the ride.

14) If it looks slippery, assume it is.

A patch of suspicious pavement could be just about anything. Crisco? Gravel? Mobil 1? Or maybe it's nothing. Better to slow down for nothing than go down for something.

15) Wear good gear.

Wear stuff that fits you and the weather. If you are too hot or too cold or fighting with a jacket that binds across the shoulders, you are dangerous. It's that simple.

16) Learn to swerve.

Be able to do two quick turns in quick succession. Flick left around the object, then right back to your original trajectory. The bike will follow your eyes, so look at the way around, not at the object to be avoided.

17) Everything is harder to see after dark.

Adjust your headlights. Carry a clear face shield and be especially alert during commuter hours.

18) Don't troll next to, or right behind, a tractor-trailer.

If one of those 18 retreads blows up, which they do with some regularity, you could find yourself dodging big chunks of flying rubber. Keep your distance behind a tractor-trailer.

19) Beware of tuned-up cars.

They're quick and their drivers tend to be aggressive. Don't assume you have beaten one away from the light or outpaced it in traffic and change lanes without looking. You could end as a Nissan hood ornament.

20) Think before you act.

Be careful whipping around that Camry going 7 mph in a 25 mph zone or you could end up with your head in the driver's side door when he turns in front of you into his driveway.

TECH TIPS

from the Webdude

Security Tips

Install and update anti-virus and spyware detection software, such as McAfee® AntiVirus Plus for PCs, as well as a firewall.

Keep your PC and browser updated. Use automatic downloads to ensure that new operating systems and application patches are updated automatically when released by the vendor.

Subscribe to Equifax® Credit Monitoring Product, which includes alerts for changes in your account balances, identity theft insurance, and recovery help.

Online Security Revisited

In today's day and age, you can never hear about online security too much. I spoke about this topic in a recent newsletter, but it is always worth revisiting. With the holidays in the review mirror, we cannot let our guard down when it comes to keeping our information safe and secure. Maintaining vigilance should be a year round exercise, much like maintaining your bike. Complacency could lead to vulnerability.

Quick Tips

Antivirus

Install and update anti-virus and spyware detection software, such as McAfee®.

PC/OS Updates

Keep your PC and browser updated. Use automatic updates to ensure latest patches.

Password Safety

Periodically change your passwords and never use common words. Mix it up.

Events/Ride/Photos

Thanks for the great turn out of the our annual New Year Day breakfast and ride. The breakfast was held at the Golden Corral (location of our general meeting) but due to the inclement weather the ride portion of the day was cancelled. Maybe next New Year... Mark your calendars!!!

Events/Ride/Photos

On Saturday the 12th, 9 crazy people rode their wings over 200 miles just to eat lunch. The crazies are Gordon, Frankie, Jeff, Charlie, Mark, Dave, Claude, Eddie and Rosa. We departed Fburg at 10:30 in heavy fog to begin our quest for great food. Did I say heavy fog....when we got to the 301 bridge we could not see the top of it, we just rode our bikes upwards into oblivion. And cold, the weatherman called for 60 degree temps but we rode all the way there in the low 40's and froze our butts off, but hey, we were on a quest for great food and thoughts of the Double T Diner was enough to keep us warm. The sun finally arrived about 20 miles from our destination so our weatherman Jeff was off the hook for a little while. The Double T did not disappoint us and we ate like gluttonous pigs.

During lunch I got a chance to make an observation....the 3 "largest" men at our table were the only ones who ordered dessert; hmmm. We waddled out and saddled up in bright sunshine to begin our return trip, so Jeff got some more kudos's. We took a small detour to see Chesapeake Beach and get a photo op and that is when it happened...upon leaving Chesapeake Beach we made the mandatory U turn as we tried to find our way back to route 2. Shortly after getting back on route 2, we replayed "The Fog" as we were in it again and it was more dense this time around. Jeff was now getting a lot of flak (well deserved) as we plodded along, but at least we could barely make out the top of the 301 bridge this time. Anyway, we had a wonderful time as it was great to be on our bikes and sharing a quest for great food on fantastic machines with fabulous friends.

Recipes

Overnight Blueberry French Toast

- 12 slices day-old bread, cut into 1-inch cubes
- (8 ounce) packages cream cheese, cut into 1 inch cubes
- 1 cup fresh blueberries
- 12 eggs, beaten
- 2 cups milk
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 1/3 cup maple syrup
- 1 cup white sugar
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 1 cup water
- 1 cup fresh blueberries
- 1 tablespoon butter

Directions

Lightly grease a 9x13 inch baking dish. Arrange half the bread cubes in the dish, and top with cream cheese cubes. Sprinkle 1 cup blueberries over the cream cheese, and top with remaining bread cubes. In a large bowl, mix the eggs, milk, vanilla extract, and syrup. Pour over the bread cubes. Cover, and refrigerate overnight. Remove the bread cube mixture from the refrigerator about 30 minutes before baking. Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F (175 degrees C). Cover, and bake 30 minutes. Uncover, and continue baking 25 to 30 minutes, until center is firm and surface is lightly browned. In a medium saucepan, mix the sugar, cornstarch, and water. Bring to a boil. Stirring constantly, cook 3 to 4 minutes. Mix in the remaining 1 cup blueberries. Reduce heat, and simmer 10 minutes, until the blueberries burst. Stir in the butter, and pour over the baked French toast.

Baked Buffalo Wings / Superbowl Favorite

Directions

1. Line a baking sheet with aluminum foil, and lightly grease with cooking spray. Place the flour, cayenne pepper, garlic powder, and salt into a resealable plastic bag, and shake to mix. Add the chicken wings, seal, and toss until well coated with the flour mixture. Place the wings onto the prepared baking sheet, and place into the refrigerator. Refrigerate at least 1 hour.
 2. Preheat oven to 400 degrees F (200 degrees C).
 3. Whisk together the melted butter and hot sauce in a small bowl. Dip the wings into the butter mixture, and place back on the baking sheet. Bake in the preheated oven until the chicken is no longer pink in the center, and crispy on the outside, about 45 minutes. Turn the wings over halfway during cooking so they cook evenly.
- 3/4 cup all-purpose flour
 - 1/2 teaspoon cayenne pepper
 - 1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
 - 1/2 teaspoon salt
 - 20 chicken wings
 - 1/2 cup melted butter
 - 1/2 cup hot pepper sauce (such as Frank's RedHot®)

My fellow "Wingers".

Happy 2013!!! So far it has been a productive year! We have had a couple of events already and the year is still young. I do anticipate this will be a very full year of riding, get-togethers and riding!!! And speaking of riding, I am still looking for any and all articles and pictures of those events. I know your staff will be planning the coming year of rides and will be looking for your input.

As much as I love the lunch/dinner/ice cream rides, my wife has been teasing me on my expanding waistline, so I hope to participate in more rides like the ones to North Carolina and Pennsylvania we did last riding season. The best ride I did was early in my joining the Chapter to Norfolk and touring an Aircraft Carrier. So let your staff members know what you would like or plan it and they can promote it. Regardless, write it up and submit it to your newsletter! I am looking forward to the next riding season and your company. Happy New year!

Please submit all articles and pictures to the following address;

Thanks and safe

riding!!!
